LEADERSHIP

In 1989, the company came into being under the dynamic guidance of Mr. Rajendra Surana. The management's exceptional business foresight, backed by thirty years of industry experience, has paved the way for the company's success story. Our leaders firmly endorse the idea that clients are at the heart of everything. They're dedicated to nurturing strong client relationships and addressing their needs, viewing this as the blueprint for the company's path to prosperity.

TEAMS

Our workforce comprises a talented group of professionals with extensive industry exposure and deep expertise in their respective fields. They're committed to consistently striving, putting in their best efforts to ensure the delivery of the highest quality selection of ready-made garments, tailored precisely to our clients' needs. Adapting to the ever-shifting industry trends and diverse client demands, our team places strong emphasis on collaborating closely with clients. This collaborative approach allows us to grasp their visions, translating them into finished garments in a timely and efficient manner.

QUALITY PROCESS :

We make sure that our products meet very high standards of quality. To do this, we carefully check each and every Ready-Made Garment to make sure they're perfect in every way. This helps us avoid any mistakes during production, and we have trained experts overseeing everything from getting the materials to making the final garments. Our in-house stitching and quality control are managed by experienced people at every step, so that we can give our customers really great products. Our main focuses are using the latest technology and having a team that puts customers first. These two things are the most important for us to reach our goals.
